

South Carolina Health Disparities: Reported Cases of HIV*

*AIDS cases are included in counts of HIV cases. Data are cumulative from Feb., 1986
Source: SCDHEC HIV/AIDS Surveillance Data, Data are Provisional

- Aids cases for 2004 in South Carolina, increased in each category except Black females. White females continue to have the lowest reported cases of HIV, while Black males continue to dominate the total number of cases.